

Meet Your Coach

Melissa played volleyball at Alvin High School and graduated in 1982. She went on to play at ACC and Texas A&M - Kingsville. Melissa graduated with a degree in secondary education and began teaching and coaching at El Campo HS. Melissa spent two years there before moving to Austin. During her 7 years at Dripping Springs HS, she led the team to 6 district championships, 2 regional appearances, and a State Championships in 1994. Melissa moved to Bowie High School in Austin as the head coach for 2 years before leaving coaching to spend more time with family. Melissa returned to coaching in 2006 at Dahlstrom Middle School in the Hays Consolidated district. In 2010 Melissa moved with her family to China Spring and spent 7 years as the head volleyball coach at China Spring High School.

email